TERMS & CONDITIONS

- iCert will make every reasonable effort to complete orders by the estimated completion date. However, iCert assumes no responsibility and will not be held liable for any damages caused by orders delivered after the estimated completion date. Improperly addressed shipments and/or incomplete submission forms may contribute to further delays.
- Customer warrants that no items are submitted to iCert for certification or authentication that have knowingly been restored, tampered with or are not genuine.
- Customer acknowledges that services provided by iCert are based on subjective, professional opinions and therefore can change from time to time. iCert Assumes no responsibility for items that are later discovered to have been tampered with, forged or determined to be non-authentic, and any certification or authentication would be rendered null and void.
- In the event a discrepancy or error is identified after receipt of goods, Customer must notify iCert within five (5) business days.
- In the event that any certification material, including plastic shrink wrap, holographic label, certification numbered label, is removed or deemed to have been tampered with, certification or authentication of the item would be rendered null and void.
- In the event payment is not made in full, on or before the anticipated ship date, iCert will not be able to ship your order. Furthermore, if we receive incomplete or inaccurate shipping information, items may become lost. iCert will not be responsible for any items lost due to inaccurate or incomplete shipping information, or insufficient payment for related services. iCert is also not responsible for items left unpaid for a period exceeding ninety (90) days after receipt of goods.
- "Certified From A Sealed Case" will only be applied to boxes that have been removed from a sealed case by an iCert representative. "Original Seal Intact" will only be applied to boxes that have the original manufacturer's seal applied and intact as determined by iCert.
